

Proclamation

Founded in 1911, First Insurance Company of Hawai'i is the oldest kama'āina insurance company and is committed to protecting the people and businesses of Hawai'i with a range of both property and commercial insurance products that are provided through 28 independent agencies throughout the state.

As the state's largest property and casualty insurance carrier, First Insurance Company of Hawai'i provides jobs to more than 300 Hawai'i residents at its headquarters in Honolulu.

With 96 percent of its customers rating the claims process as "good" or "excellent," First Insurance Company of Hawai'i takes pride in offering professional service to policy holders, while reaching out to help community members in need of charitable assistance.

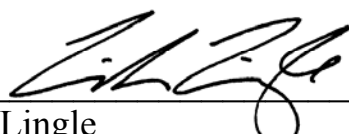

The First Community Action Team (First CAT), an internal employee service group, strives to positively impact the residents of our state. By working with local charities such as Easter Seals, Ronald McDonald House, Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Hawai'i, and Meals on Wheels, First Insurance Company of Hawai'i demonstrates its dedication to serving our community.

THEREFORE, I, LINDA LINGLE, Governor of the State of Hawai'i, and I, JAMES R. "DUKE" AIONA, Jr., Lieutenant Governor, do hereby proclaim August 11, 2006, as in Hawai'i, and thank everyone involved for their expertise and dedication to our citizens.

Done at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this third day of August, 2006.
